$Arlington\ Public\ Schools\ Family\ Life\ Education\ Parent\ Opt-Out\ Form-GRADE\ 9$

STUL	DENT NAME:	PHONE #:
		DATE:
that many o	ny child will be given an alternati bjectives from which I opt-out n	y child opt-out of the following objectives. I understand ve assignment to be completed independently in place of my child. I also understand that the child is expected to hile working on the alternative assignment and that a grade
	CCTIONS: Please place your initiour child.	als on the line next to each objective from which you opt-
	Descriptive Statement : Information prenatal, infant, toddler, pre-kinder elderly-is related to the complexity	the human growth and development cycle. In about developmental levels throughout the life cycle- regarten, school-age, adolescent, young adult, middle-age, and re of childrearing and to the need for maturity before that is also presented to help students gain appreciation of their her responsibility as a member on Descriptive Statement: Topics including family influences on society, and in	mportance of the family as a basic unit of society and his or f the family. ude the function of the family, family forms, family strengths, estruction in the value of family relationships. The benefits, lue of marriage for individuals, and communities in society personality. Descriptive Statement : Discussion	e development of sexuality as an aspect of the total a focuses on the development of one's sexual identity. Internal ith problems of sexual identity are addressed.
	Descriptive Statement : Students pr decision-making process in practic	apply the decision-making process. actice methods of gathering information and applying the al situations. Emphasis is placed on the need for parental les, knowledge, positive mental health practices, and reason as functions of dating, and coping wit discuss the signs of dating violence relationships, and the law and mean	ature and purposes of dating. ude understanding family guidelines related to dating, the ship the pressures experienced in dating situations. Students will be, sexual violence, physically and mentally abusive ning of consent prior to sexual activity. Discussion may focus that the dating as a couple, in early adolescence.

9.6 The student will realize the importance of setting standards for controlling sexual behavior and of postponing sexual relations until marriage.
Descriptive Statement : The physical, emotional, social, psychological and economic consequences of sexual relations before a committed relationship/marriage continue to be emphasized along with reinforcement of assertive skills and ways to say "no" in terms that will enable the student to resist pressure from other teenagers and manage his or her own feelings and behavior. Instruction includes discussion regarding the law and meaning of consent. Emphasis is placed on an increased awareness that consent is required before sexual activity.
 9.7 The student will interpret the effects and prevention of sexual assault, rape (including date rape), incestuous behavior, and molestation, human trafficking, and sexual harassment using electronic means.
Descriptive Statement : This is a review of the use of assertive skills, conflict resolution, avoidance of risk situations, and referral services in the community. In addition to identifying such factors, the student explains or interprets them to others. The student will demonstrate proper approaches to dealing with physically and mentally abusive relationships. The student will identify the appropriate and inappropriate use of electronic devices. Instruction includes the legal implications for inducing someone to engage in commercial sex (i.e., purchaser, John, inducer) Instruction includes recognizing red flags of human trafficking victims, understanding the types of trafficking, and knowing how to safely and responsibly report a human trafficking situation.
 9.8 The student will relate specific information on substance use and abuse to each stage of the life cycle.
Descriptive Statement : Emphasis is on substance use and abuse during pregnancy, puberty, and adolescence and its general effect on daily functioning.
adolescence and its general effect on daily functioning.
 9.9 The student will be able to explain the process of reproduction.
Descriptive Statement : Instructional components include anatomy, physiology, conception, fertility, fetal development, childbirth, and prenatal care.
 9.10 The student will demonstrate understanding of specific health issues, including the ability to conduct self-examinations.
Descriptive Statement : The focus is on factual information about menstruation, proper use of menstrual hygiene products in relationship to cleanliness, pre-menstrual syndrome, menopause, and male- and female-specific concerns. Disease prevention through self-assessment and self-examination is reinforced with emphasis on breast and testicular self-examination.
9.11 The student will demonstrate knowledge of pregnancy prevention and disease control.
 Descriptive Statement : Topics include planning for adult relationships, a review of factors to consider in planning for a family, misconceptions about contraception, a review of methods of contraception in relation to effectiveness in pregnancy prevention and disease control, and the decisions associated with contraception. Abortion is not presented as a method of birth control, but spontaneous abortion or miscarriage is explained, and the risks of induced abortion are analyzed.
9. 12 The student will explain the transmission and prevention of the HIV.
 Descriptive Statement: This is a review of the ways in which HIV is transmitted and the techniques for preventing this disease.
9.13 The student will identify the effects of discrimination.
 7.10 The student will identify the effects of distribution.

	Descriptive Statement : The teacher helps students identify forms of discriminate consequences of discrimination on individual and family life. Discussion focuse importance of differences among individuals and families. The effects of discrimers person's mental health will also be discussed.	es on the value and
	9.14 The student will begin to identify educational and career goals. Descriptive Statement: Students formulate educational and career objectives. A project provides the structure for achieving this objective and students complete enable them to gain insight into the variety of personal and career options. Students impact of use of social networking sites on career goals.	activities that
	9.15 The student will review facts about pregnancy prevention and disease Descriptive Statement: Methods of contraception are analyzed in terms of their preventing pregnancy and the spread of disease. Abstinence is emphasized as that is 100 percent effective in preventing pregnancy and sexually transmitted in	effectiveness in ne only method
YOUE	ASE RETURN THIS FORM TO THE PRINCIPAL BY THE DATE ESTAIN TO THE PRINCIPAL BY THE DATE ESTAIN TO THE PRINCIPAL BY THE DATE ESTAIN THE SECHOOL NT/GUARDIAN SIGNATURE:	STABLISHED BY DATE: