

Sepoy Rebellion

Document A: Gardiner's History

1. What kind of document is this? When was it written?
2. Who was the intended audience of this document?
3. What are the author's main claims about what caused the Sepoy Rebellion?
4. Do you think this is a trustworthy document? Why or Why not?

Document B: Colin Campbell

5. Who is Campbell? When was the document written?
6. What are Campbell's two main claims about what caused the Sepoy Rebellion?
7. According to Campbell, why did the British take control of Oudh?
8. How does Campbell describe the residents of Oudh?
9. Do you think this is a trustworthy document? Why or why not?

Document C: Sita Ram

10. Who is Sita Ram? When was the document written?
11. What are Sita Ram's main claims about what caused the Sepoy Rebellion?
12. Do you think this is a trustworthy document? Why or Why not?
13. How do Sita Ram's arguments compare to those in Document A and Document B?

Document D: Sayyid Ahmed Khan

14. Who is Khan? When was this document written?
15. What are Kahn's main claims about what caused the Sepoy Rebellion?
16. Do you think this is a trustworthy document? Why or Why Not?

Document E: Coohill's History

17. Who is Coohill? When was the document written?
18. Coohill wrote, "Indians considered this to be a final outrage of British conquest." What do you think he meant?
19. What additional information about the causes of the Sepoy Rebellion does this document provide?
20. Do you think this is a trustworthy document? Why or Why not?

Discussion Questions:

21. How is this an example of Imperialism?
22. How do the British views differ from the Indian views?
23. If you had to choose a side, which side would you support and why?