Spring/Summer 2019
Volume 1, Issue 3

Dear HJMS Families,

As this school-year is quickly coming to a close there is so much to celebrate and be excited about. In the following pages of this newsletter are numerous examples of the great things happening at our school. Throughout this year, our students have earned countless awards, showcased musical and artistic talents, and demonstrated a commitment to our school community. While I am so proud of the students who have been recognized for their achievements, I am even more more impressed with what I see every day from all our kids.

When reflecting on this first year as your principal, I can say with confidence that our school is doing a good job in defying the stereotype of middle school being some of the toughest years as a student. As their new leader, I was welcomed warmly at the start of the year by your children and I continue to begin every day with a smile and a greeting from them. Of course there have been times when Mrs. Belmonte and I have had to have difficult conversations with students and families; however, the number of kind actions, supportive friends, and students just doing the right thing far outnumber tough situations. I am so proud of the vast majority of our students who come to school every day ready to learn and looking forward to making someone else's day better. When I first accepted this position I received more than a few eye rolls asking what I did wrong to be headed to the middle school. To answer them, this has been a great experience to be sharing my days with students who are just starting to figure out who they are, who crave connection with the adults here, and demonstrate more responsibility than most adults I know. Our students are awesome! This is a time a great possibilities and I have been inspired by your children every day.

The community we have at HMJS doesn't happen by chance; we are so lucky to have such supportive families, dedicated teachers, and a talented support staff. Thank you for supporting the HJ Way and the importance of hard work at home to prepare your children for success at school. I wish the families who will be departing HJMS this year great success in the future and I look forward to continuing to partner with our returning families to make HJMS an even better school community next year!

Have a great summer!

Scott Baker
Principal

Character Quote of the Year:

This inspirational quote comes from John F. Kennedy:

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter the words, but to live by them.”

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Welcome to the Counselor's Corner! It is our hope that through quarterly updates your family will have more insight into how their school counselor is working with your child.

Chris Hall (A-G)   Alexandra Bond (H-P)   Sarah Maher (Q-Z)

Spring is a busy time of year at HJMS. All students have completed the course selection process for the 2019-20 school year. Counselors met with students during connections periods in the Spring months to verify course and credits as they plan for next year.

On May 9th, members of the Simsbury Chamber of Commerce in addition to parent volunteers met as "mentors" for the 12th annual "Lunch N Learn" program at Henry James. The purpose of the program is to introduce the students to various professionals in their community who are willing to share their life stories while enjoying lunch with small groups of students. Mentors aim to stimulate thinking about a student's own career choice and what steps they can start to take. Key life skills such as making strong eye contact, firm handshakes, and engaging in meaningful conversations were reinforced by Principal Scott Baker. "It's become a great tradition and we can't thank the chamber and parent-volunteers enough for taking the time to work with our students," says School Counselor, Chris Hall.

7th Grade students also had an Introductory Mindfulness Lesson to teach different relaxation strategies to learn to deal with stress & anxiety. Counselors offered Mindful Minutes before school on Wednesday mornings to support all student and faculty ongoing education and practice.

Over the summer try a Mindful Moment: Take a break with the 3 B's

Before you engage in an activity like sports or conversations with others, you can always take a break with the 3 B's.

- 1. Breathe: Notice your breath. Take a deep slow breath.
- 2. Body: Notice how you feel in your body. Relax and release any tension.
- 3. Begin: Begin the task and be thoughtful in your actions.

ART NEWS

Kate Martin was honored in May at the Lions Club luncheon for her peace poster. Kate's poster won at the regional level for central Connecticut. The theme for the poster this year was "Kindness Matters". A representative from the Lions Club gave a speech on the message about how small random acts of kindness really do matter.

Jonas Schroder (8th grader) was the artist of the week on Artsonia in January. Artsonia is a website used at HJ where students have their own online digital portfolio. Every week a few students are chosen at random to be artist of the week and win by achieving the most online votes. Jonas received over 1,000 online votes for his artwork (Self Portrait) shown here on his plaque. He received a $50 gift card to Dick Blick and his teacher received a $100 gift card to Dick Blick for classroom supplies.
