

Celebrating Alaska's 50th Anniversary of Statehood

➤ In the Kenai Peninsula Borough

John J. Williams
Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor

What are we celebrating?

- May 28, 1958 – The U.S. House of Representatives passed the Alaska Statehood Bill by a vote of 208 to 166.
- July 7, 1958 – President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed the Alaska Statehood Bill into law.
- January 3, 1959 – President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed the proclamation admitting Alaska to the U.S. a “moment after the stroke of noon.”

The Alaska Statehood Celebration Commission (ASCC)

➤ Governor Palin appointed a commission of eight members with a mission ...

‘to research, plan and prepare to celebrate Alaska’s 50th Anniversary of admission as the 49th state of the United States of America.’”

How is Alaska Celebrating?

May 28, 2008 and into weekend – Events celebrating the bill's passage will be hosted by Festival Fairbanks.

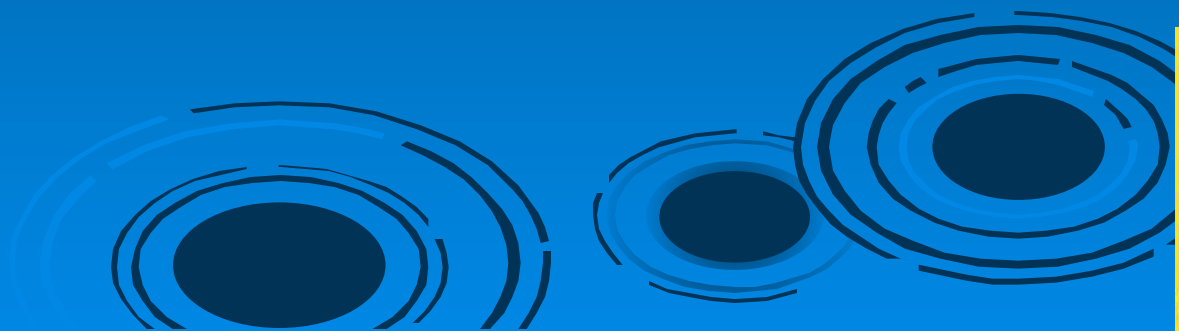

July 4th, 2008 weekend – Capital City Celebration will host events commemorating signing of the bill.

January 3, 2009 – Tech50 (Anchorage) will begin a week long celebration of the proclamation admitting Alaska to the U.S.

Alaska Statehood Quilt Invitational

Quilters all over Alaska are invited to create a 24" x 30" BLOCK that represents the 50th Anniversary of Alaska Statehood. These can represent any image, person or event that reminds the artist of statehood.

All of the BLOCKS will be assembled into 8' x 10' panels to be displayed as part of the Alaska Statehood Celebration on January 3rd in Anchorage. These panels will then tour the state throughout 2009.
