RE: CORRECTED COPY of August 20th, 2021 NOTICE

Dear Griswold Public Schools:

We hope that this notice finds you all well. We wanted to provide our community with an update regarding the weather forecast.

As we monitor the weekend weather forecast, we thought it would be helpful to put this notice out now so that everyone can plan accordingly. We ask that you visit our district homepage for any and all updates pertaining to the weather over the course of the next few days.

Please take note of the following:

- Our campus will be closed on Sunday, August 22nd, 2021, to all. With the exception of essential personnel, we are keeping the campus closed due to the weather forecast, which includes a high wind warning. All activities, including athletic activities, have been cancelled.
- We plan to open campus on Monday, August 23rd, 2021, for our employees; all student activities for Monday, August 23rd, are canceled. We ask that all employees remain in contact with their direct supervisor, if there is a change in this plan.
- The following event, originally scheduled for Monday, August 23rd, 2021, has been rescheduled:
  - The Griswold Middle School Orientation, for students who are new to Griswold Public Schools and for students who are returning from a full distance learning program, has been rescheduled tentatively to Tuesday, August 24th, 2021, at 1:00 pm.
- At this time, the GMS 5th Grade Orientation will be held on Tuesday, August 24th, from 8:00 am - 12:00pm.

A reminder: Please visit our district homepage for any changes or updates.

We want to wish you all a happy, safe weekend despite the forecast. As always, we thank you all for your continued support.

Sincerely yours,

Sean P. McKenna,
Superintendent of Schools
