

I am a graduate of the Waterbury Public Schools and was previously a math teacher before I joined the Gilmartin family. When I am not in school, I enjoy spending time with my husband and two children (who you may have seen at some school events). We enjoy dancing and listening to music as a family or just relaxing at home together.