

Media Arts: Broadcast News Application

The media arts discipline provides opportunities for discoveries through four Artistic Processes: Creating, Producing, Responding, and Connecting. Each of these processes further offers Enduring Understandings and Essential Questions that relate to each of the standards developed within these processes.

The Mountain Brook Broadcast News team is responsible for creating and producing the MBJH Spartan Newscast. Students in 9th grade gather news, write news scripts, interview people, run equipment, and create the newscast. Students are also asked to produce special productions.

If you are interested in being on the MBJH Broadcast News team, please answer the following questions. Make sure to include your name, your parent's email address, and a phone number to contact you/your family:

The application is due March 1st. Please return the completed document to the front office.
