1. DELAC Welcome

Krista called meeting to order at 8:36am followed by a welcome activity called “What’s the Story” where we divided into groups of 3-4 and each group was given a picture to look at and discuss what we think is happening in the picture. Then all the groups came together and put our pictures together in the correct sequence. We then lined up in the order of our pictures and shared what we had thought our picture was about before putting all the pictures together to tell the story. This is a great verbal communication exercise that requires no reading, simply verbal description and dialogue.
