End of the French Revolution

I. Early Events

A. Women's March on Versailles

1.

2.

3.

Write a minimum of 3 notes: include details about who was involved, what happened, when and where, why (@ least 1 cause), and how (@ least 1 effect)

B. August Decrees

1. note 1 - include the following 3 details: who, did what, why (from the paragraph under the title)

2. note 2 – select 1 (or part of 1) degree (from under the line) to write here (minimum of 8 words)

a. note a – rewrite the quote from above in your own words

C. Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen

1. note 1 - include the following 3 details: who, did what, why (from the paragraph under the title)

2. note 2 – select 1 (or part of 1) degree (from under the line) to write here (minimum of 8 words)

a. note a – rewrite the quote from above in your own words

II. Formed New Government

A. Sept. 1791 – assembly wrote new constitution

1. limited powers of King

2. organized new Parliament

III. Attack on New Government

A. Austria & Prussia declared war against France

    1. supported bringing King back to power

B. By end of 1792, Parisians captured Louis XVI and family and executed them

C. September 21, 1792 – National Convention declared France a republic

IV. Beginning of Terror

A. Marquis de LaFayette

    1. led national guard against King & ruling Estates

    2. jailed for not being radical enough

B. Riots spread through France

    1. peasants attacked bourgeoisie, destroyed property, stole food

V. Reign of Terror (1792 – 1795)

A. Maximilien Robespierre

    1. used terror to control mobs

    2. created Committee of Public Safety

       – acted as judge / jury / executioner of those accused of being against Revolution

    3. known as Reign of Terror

      a. "enemies of the Republic" put to death by guillotine

B. Radicals began to fight among themselves

    1. Robespierre was captured and guillotined, ending
       Reign of Terror

VI. New Rules are Set

A. August 1795 – National Convention changed name to "The Directory"

1.