From Dr. Padua's Desk

With the first month of the school year behind us, I want to commend the assistant principals, staff, parents and students for an excellent start to the year. Our new students are already exhibiting the traits of Spartan HONOR, and our returning students are continuing to set the standard.

October is an important month academically for all students. We will be administering the PSAT and SAT tests in class on October 16. These tests are especially important to college entry, and also as an indicator of our ability to achieve WCA's mission: Preparing every student to be college and/or career ready. Please make sure to be present and alert on test day.

Let's have a great month.
