

OUTDOOR EXPLORER CAMP

FOR STUDENTS EXITING GRADES K-4

Meet and handle live animals; explore woodlands, streams, and wetlands; play, observe, build, and create in the natural world; and most importantly come home with some dirt on your hands and a smile on your face!

Join CVH Animal Sanctuary's educator, Mr. T and SHS 4th grade teacher, Mrs. T as we explore the beautiful nature trails and diverse environments at the Sandy Hook School. This is a hands-on program that will bring children closer to the nature where they live, opening up a world to them and giving them life-long skills, knowledge, and experiences that a bevy of studies suggest can make them healthier, happier, and even smarter! Our main goal, though...to have fun outside everyday!!! Campers will need to bring a lunch.

Instructors: Mr & Mrs. Teraszkiewicz "T"

There will be four one-week sessions. Each session will have a different theme. Sign up for one or more or sign up for all!!!

Lead Explorers:

Henryk "Mr. T Teraszkiewicz has been an outdoor educator for 30 years. Formerly the Executive Director and Director of Education for 16 years at the Woodcock Nature Center in Wilton, CT, he is the founder of ReConnect24, a consultancy focusing on outdoor and science education, programming, health, non-profit management, and public engagement; whose clients currently include the Catherine Violet Hubbard Animal Sanctuary, Everwonder Children's Museum, and New Pond Farm Education Center among others. Having received his start in outdoor education via summer camps, Mr. T has created, implemented, and managed successful programs for Camp Kiwi (Mahopac, NY), Westport Public Schools, Woodcock Nature Center, and National Audubon.

Kelly "Mrs. T" Teraszkiewicz currently teaches 4th grade at Sandy Hook Elementary School, having taught first grade previously. Mrs. T has multiple masters degrees in education and has 15+ years of education experience from the Newtown, Wilton, and Westport school systems. She also received her educational start as a camp counselor for Camp Kiwi, where she and Mr. T actually met many, MANY years ago! Additionally, Mr. and Mrs. T co-created an outdoor exploration summer program for the Westport School system. Mrs. T has a great affinity for the natural world that she brings into her classroom on a regular basis, including being an experienced apiarist (bee keeper). Mrs. T is also the troop leader for the new, all-girls Scouts of American Troop 970 in Newtown.
