

Santa Fe University of Art & Design is a small art school in the heart of Santa Fe, New Mexico. 92% of faculty are working professionals who love what they do. There are many opportunities for internships. Students are happy. Majors include Art/Architecture Design, Moving Image Arts (Film/Video), Performing Arts, Contemporary Music, Digital Arts, Arts Management, Graphic Design, Photography, Creative Writing and Literature, and of course Studio Art. Film/Animation in New Zealand and Fashion Design and Graphic Design in Milan provide the opportunity for dual degrees and/or multiple certificates. Students are encouraged to minor in Business Management. The school is in a building mode and is currently providing amazing scholarships for freshman and transfer students. Mrs. Schneider has attended the counselor tour and is able to nominate up to three of our students per year for a 30-50% reduction in tuition depending on major.