

Kindergarten Poem Recitation

Please pick one of the following poems and memorize it. You will be asked to say the poem aloud in front of the entire class the week of December 9th - 13th. You will be graded on presentation (posture and body language), voice (can we hear you), and if you have memorized the poem correctly.

Jack and Jill
Went down a hill
In a fast toboggan.
They hit a bump,
Which made a lump
In the middle of Jack's noggin

By Bruce Lansky

Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
To get her poor dog a bone.
But the dog couldn't wait,
So when dinner was late,
He ordered a pizza by phone.

By Bruce Lansky

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet,
Licking an ice-cream cone.
Along came a spider,
Who dangled beside her -
She told him to go get his own

By Bruce Lansky

Hey diddle, diddle,
This rhyme is a riddle:
Can a cow fly over the moon?
I bet you'll say, "No,"
But the answer is, "Yes," -
If she's riding a hot-air balloon.

By Stan Lee Werlin

Old King Cole
Was a chubby old soul
Who loved to play the fiddle.
When given a chance,
He'd often dance,
Till his pants split down the middle.

By Larry Cohen & Steve Zweig

Jack was nimble,
Jack was quick.
Jack jumped over the candlestick.
Jack kept jumping,
Much too close.
Now his pants smell like burnt toast!
