Course Description:

This course is designed to develop student competency in English usage and mechanics, oral and written communication. Topics for class activities, discussion, and presentations include poetry, novels, essays, library research skills, short stories, and creative writing. Students use analytical and critical thinking skills while examining the various literary forms. This course fulfills the requirement for one unit of 10th grade English for the high school diploma. "Participation in Pre-AP courses allows students to slow down and focus on the most essential and relevant concepts and skills. Students have frequent opportunities to engage deeply with texts, sources, and data as well as compelling higher-order questions and problems. Across Pre-AP courses, students experience shared instructional practices and routines that help them develop and strengthen the important critical thinking skills they will need to employ in high school, college, and life. Students and teachers can see progress and opportunities for growth through varied classroom assessments that provide clear and meaningful feedback at key checkpoints throughout each course" (College Board 3).

Course Objectives:

1. Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
 2. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
 3. Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions.
 4. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage.
 5. Determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases using a range of strategies.

Turnitin Notice

The majority of writing assignments in this course will be submitted to Turnitin via the Schoology learning platform. Turnitin generates a report on the originality of student writing by comparing it with a database of periodicals, books, online content, student papers, and other published work. This program will help students discern when they are using sources fairly, citing properly, and paraphrasing effectively - skills essential to all academic work.

Students will have the opportunity to review their Turnitin originality report and will have the opportunity to make revisions before submitting their work for grading. Once their work is submitted, teachers have the opportunity to view the student/s originality report and grade accordingly.
