

FORMAL
ASSESSMENT*UNIT
4*Chapter 11: The Roman Republic
SECTION 4 QUIZ

MULTIPLE CHOICE Choose the best answer for each question from the choices available.

- Which problems resulted from the Roman Republic's expansion after the Punic Wars?
 - disease and widespread hunger
 - overpopulation and disease
 - conflicts with neighboring lands and peoples
 - poverty and unemployment
- Which two Roman generals were given extraordinary powers by the Senate to put down a slave rebellion?
 - Sulla and Marius
 - Caesar and Crassus
 - Crassus and Pompey
 - Tiberius and Marius
- What did Cicero argue for to repair the damaged republic?
 - making the Senate and army stronger
 - reducing the army's powers and restoring the system of checks and balances
 - giving slaves and plebeians more power and taking land from the rich
 - starting a civil war to take power from the Senate
- To whom did the Senate turn when its power was taken by the consuls in 70 B.C.?
 - Julius Caesar
 - General Crassus
 - General Pompey
 - The First Triumvirate
- Which statement best describes Julius Caesar?
 - popular with the Senate but hated by the people
 - popular with the people but hated by the Senate
 - popular with the people but hated by his soldiers
 - hated by the Roman Republic
- What happened on the Ides of March in 44 B.C.?
 - Caesar declared himself a dictator.
 - Caesar was married to Cleopatra VII.
 - Caesar was murdered by a group of senators.
 - The Roman Republic was transformed into an empire.

CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE Write the answer to each question in the space provided.

- 7 Why was the Senate resistant to Julius Caesar's reforms?

- 8 Which factors and events contributed to the end of the Roman Republic?
