

Writing Practice: Quotation Marks

Quotation marks signal that the words between the marks are the actual words said by the speaker. They also signal a title of a poem, story, song, and other works.

Write a sentence as instructed below. Use quotation marks correctly.

1. Write a sentence where someone speaks.
2. Write a sentence using a song title.
3. Write a sentence where someone asks a question.
4. Write a sentence where someone says something, and there's an exclamation point.
5. Write a sentence where someone says a quotation from someone else.
