HOME AND SCHOOL COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Teacher E-Mail Addresses: All teachers at this school have been issued e-mail addresses.

The following narrative about how this school promotes and supports parental involvement was submitted by this school.

Rock Hill School is committed to supporting the family's role in the education of our students. Our Parent Teacher Action Committee works collaboratively to discuss important issues in curriculum and instruction. The Rock Hill library is truly the hub of our school! Many parents volunteer to assist students with book selection and research, and cataloging and shelving books. The library is always alive with children reading, researching, blogging, and working on projects. Tuesday Times is our weekly newsletter for parents from the office and teachers also forward classroom newsletters. In addition, the school and teacher's websites are updated to include upcoming events, messages, and to inform parents about specific activities within the classrooms. We also have a Mass Notification Communication system that we began using to be able to contact all parents. Open House, K Orientation, parent/teacher conferences, and our standards-based report card continue to be very effective for communication with parents to share and discuss the curriculum and their child's progress and needs. Parents are very involved in their children's education. Ideas and Homework Tips are provided to parents as well as ideas about how parents can help their children to "chunk" long term assignments. As new curriculum is implemented, parents are informed about the changes so that they are able to understand and to help their children at home. Rock Hill has many special programs and activities. Many are sponsored by our PTO as well as teachers and staff members! They include author and artist visits, field trips, book fairs, School Spirit Days, guest speakers, Field Day, Photo Auction, Craft Fair, Patriotic Day, Spring Dance, Plant Sale, PJ Day, Family Nutrition Night, Hat Day, Computer Bugs, Slipper Day, Variety Show, Wacky Wednesday Jump Day, DARE, Holiday Concerts... These many special activities involve parents, teachers, staff, and students. They bring the Rock Hill school community together in a wonderful way!

EFFORTS TO REDUCE RACIAL, ETHNIC, AND ECONOMIC ISOLATION

Below is the description submitted by this school of how it provides educational opportunities for its students to interact with students and teachers from diverse racial, ethnic, and economic backgrounds.

During the 2009-2010 school year, Rock Hill School had the opportunity to continue participation in the Open Choice program with the New Haven schools. Grade 1 through 5 students benefited from the addition of these students as part of our student body. Many families attended activities throughout the year. The faculty and students at Rock Hill School use the Colors for Success program and the Don't Laugh at Me character education program throughout the school day. The goals of anti-bullying and acceptance of diversity are outlines in curriculum projects for each grade. Teachers included literature in their Don't Laugh at Me lessons. Over 300 students, including over 50 minority students were involved in this program. The school Social Worker continued the Ambassadors of Peace team. This ethnically diverse team presented lessons to students to assist with peer relationships. The team assisted with peer mediation, tutoring, and ran the Star Student store during lunch waves. Rock Hill students earned Star Student coupons for exemplary behavior and were able to use these coupons to purchase school supplies from the store. Fifth grade students presented programs based on a specific character trait and handed out color bracelets for students in each classroom to pass on to classmates who demonstrated the character trait. The student body recites the Star Student Pledge to begin each day. The Project Wisdom program was also used this year featuring different faculty and student readers each morning. These daily messages focused on fostering an internal motivation to make wise choices and building character. The program's goals include helping students to understand and respect the similarities and differences among us, and increasing awareness of diversity and different cultures. In addition, Rock Hill has an ESL teacher and program.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PLANS AND ACTIVITIES

The following narrative was submitted by this school.

The Rock Hill teachers met weekly to examine student work and analyze data. They continued using the curriculum map and common assessments they created last year to inform instruction. SMART Goals were developed and implemented based on CMT analysis. Teachers worked collaboratively to discuss instructional strategies that would improve student achievement. Rock Hill has a very active PTO and a PTAC (Parent Teacher Advisory Council), in addition to many classroom parent volunteers. As a result, parents are engaged in both the planning and improvement of school programs, both formally and informally! There is a wonderful sense of school community at Rock Hill. Parents, teachers, staff, and students are very proud of their school! Rock Hill began the implementation of RTI (Response to Intervention) within the EIP (Early Intervention Program). Through this model, more intensive instruction was provided for individual and small groups of children as needed throughout the school year with much success! In addition, inclusive practices, which included collaborative planning, co-teaching, and differentiated instruction, was the model used for our special education program and services. Technology is an integral part of Rock Hill's programs. It included the use of SMARTBoards, document cameras, blogging, digital photography to improve specificity and descriptive writing, and iPods to improve fluency and comprehension skills.
