

Suzanna Dali-Parker is The Gilmartin K-8 English as a Second Language (ESL) teacher. Ms. Dali supports children from diverse cultures and languages to achieve social and academic English language proficiency.

A main goal of the ESL program at Gilmartin is to ensure that diverse languages and cultures are celebrated, and that all children feel welcomed with the expectation that they fully participate as members of our school community.

Ms. Dali has a background in the performing arts and uses varied art forms to promote oral language and literacy development.

She is also Spanish English bilingual and uses her bilingual skills to ensure meaningful communication between families and the school.
