

March 30, 2020

My dear ELA 7 students,

I am posting several tasks for you to do at home and packets are available at the front office for those who have no wifi or internet connection. These are the activities starting March 30 to May 20, 2020. You can email me back your answers to marilou.pabatao@ganado.k12.az.us or if you have questions, you can reach my mobile phone number 928-613-0423. Please identify yourself by texting me first.

March 30 To April 3 - Reading Comprehension Practice Test

Quizizz.com Attached to Google

April 6 - Review on Points of View

April 7 - Review on Types of Sentences

April 8 - Review on Vocabulary and Spelling

April 9 - Review on Capitalization and Punctuation

April 10 - Review on 8 parts of Speech

April 13- April 17 - ATI online Pretest for 4th Quarter

April 20- May 15- Reading Comprehension

May 18-20 - Essay Questions (Writing)

1. Did you learn something in your ELA class? What makes ELA 7 different from other subjects? What is the most important lesson that is very memorable to you? Did you develop your skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking? Why? Why not?
2. Given the chance to be a school teacher in ELA, what is it that you will teach to your students and Why?
3. As a student, what help can you give as a support in solving the pandemic disease all over the world?

(Choose only one (1) question to answer in 5 hundred words. (25 points) Rubrics- still the same in scoring your PEG Assessment)

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you my dearest students for a good job well done in my ELA class. Surely, I will miss you all, and I will cherish the good memories from you. I just hope you will fulfill your dreams in your life. Go Hornets, AIM HIGH! I may not be seeing you, but I kept all the memories in my heart. My job as a teacher in GMS will be on May 22, 2020, and I will fly back to my home country to be united with my only daughter and mother.

Thank you so much. See you again someday, somewhere, sometime! Keep safe. Stay healthy! Be strong! Loveyouall!!!

MS. MARILOU PABATAO