

SOMETHING TO AIM FOR

There are several end of the year awards that students can set as a goal of receiving. These awards will be given at an awards ceremony in June. They include: The Sarah Stevens Award: one eighth grade boy and one eighth grade girl who are involved in various school activities and show outstanding leadership while achieving high grades; Highest Average Award: given to one student per eighth grade team for Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies; Presidential Academic Excellence Award: awarded to those students who have achieved all A's during their 8th grade year; Karen Parizeau Award: is awarded to selected eighth grade students who have achieved success while overcoming obstacles during their time at Tolland Middle School.

Other awards presented at the ceremony are open to all students, and include Science Olympiads, Student of the Year for each grade, Art, Music, and Physical Education awards.
