IS IT A SOUP, SALAD OR A SANDWICH?

Pick a food (that is NOT a soup salad or a sandwich) and argue that it is one of these food items.

For example, you could choose: “I think a hotdog is a sandwich because...” or “I think Jello is a soup because...”

- Grade 7: Write a paragraph of 5-7 sentences.
- Grade 8: Write a paragraph of 8 sentences.

Choose a food and argue whether it is a soup, salad, or sandwich. Use reasons and examples to explain your opinion.

Steps to follow:

1. Start with a clear sentence that states your opinion (e.g., "I believe X is a salad because...").
2. Give at least two strong reasons to support your opinion.
3. Use details or examples that make sense for your argument.
4. Finish with a sentence that sums up your opinion.

Level 3 Criteria (Meeting the Standard):

- Clear Opinion: Your paragraph begins with a clear statement of your opinion.
- Strong Reasons: You give at least two reasons that support your opinion.
- Examples/Details: Your examples make sense and connect to your argument.
- Logical Flow: The ideas in your paragraph are organized and easy to follow.
- Proper Length:
 - Grade 7: 5-7 sentences.
 - Grade 8: 8 sentences.
- Correct Grammar and Spelling: Few to no errors.
