

SOCIAL STUDIES

HIGH SCHOOL – AP PSYCHOLOGY

Essential Understandings/Learning Goals:

- Identify the criteria for determining and diagnosing abnormal behavior
- Describe the purpose and use of the DSM-IV
- Describe the symptoms and origins of mood disorders
- Describe the symptoms and origins of personality disorders
- Describe the symptoms and origins of dissociative disorders
- Discuss approaches, such as cognitive, behavioral, biological, on the origins of depression
- Discuss the characteristics and research on the origins of depression, and depression in bipolar disorder
- Discuss the characteristics of and research on the origins of schizophrenia

Content Vocabulary:

Psychological disorder
ADHD
Medical model
DSM-V-TR
Anxiety disorder
Panic disorder
Phobia
OCD
PTSD
Somatoform disorder
Conversion disorder
Hypochondriasis
Dissociative disorder
Mood disorders
Bipolar
Schizophrenia
Delusions
Personality disorders
Antisocial disorders