

STEMagination!

Friday, June 8, 2018

What's your STEM spark? Spend the evening with us and find out! Bring your special adult and Glam Your Glasses—safety glasses, that is—then try your hand at Math, Chemistry, Engineering, Biology, and other super fun sciences! Make a mess, make a discovery, make a memory! Activities geared toward Juniors (grades 4 &5) with some badge connections. Event fee includes snack and patch.

- Who: Girls (GS Juniors and non-Girl Scouts in grades 4&5), and their special adult(s)
- Fee: $5 per person
- Where: Camp Candlewood, 29 Bogus Hill Rd., New Fairfield, CT 06812
- When: 6:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m.

Have a friend who isn't a Girl Scout yet? Have her register for the program online and then bring her along so she can see how much fun it is to be a Girl Scout!

Register by Wednesday, May 30th at gsofct.org>activities>event list
