

Story Elements in Picture Book

First in a Story: Exposition

1. What ideas/information is introduced in this part of the story?

2. What do the illustrations help us assume about the situation?

3. What page do we switch into the rising action? Make sure you Explain.

Getting Closer to the Climax:
Rising Action

Getting Closer to the Climax:
Rising Action

4. What information/text evidence did you use to identify the start of the rising action?

The Most Exciting Part of a Story: Climax

5. Why is this part of the story the Climax?

Almost at the End: Falling Action

6. Where does the falling action begin? Explain.
7. Why do we need the falling action in this story?
8. Can you begin to predict the resolution?

*The Prince kissed the Princess.
They both turned into frogs.
And they hopped off happily ever after.*

The Ending: Resolution

The End.