TUSD Holds Groundbreaking Ceremony for Foothill High School Science Center

The Tustin Unified School District is holding a groundbreaking ceremony for the new Science Center at Foothill High School at 10 a.m. Thursday, April 17. The school is located at 19251 Dodge Ave. The public is invited.

The state-of-the-art Science Center will open in fall 2009 and features biology, chemistry and physics labs; earth science and physical science classrooms; and other rooms. The two-story facility was designed by NTD Architecture and will be built by Douglas E. Barnhart, Inc. Construction Management. It is located adjacent to the staff parking lot on campus near Newport Ave. and Foothill Blvd.
