Hey bucs! Class of 2026 is having a meeting TODAY during PRIDE Time! Sign up for Mrs. Lakey!

SENIORS.

If you applied to Long Beach City College, the LBCC representative will be here TODAY to conduct the LBCC Viking Orientation.

For those students that signed up yesterday, you will receive a pass today to attend the orientation. If you didn't check in yesterday to sign up for the orientation, be sure to stop by the College & Career Center immediately.

Tuesday, March 8th will be the FINAL DAY to purchase your In-N-Out Tickets!!! Again, Tuesday, March 8th will be the FINAL DAY to purchase your In-N-Out Tickets!!!

Attention 8th graders! The Class of 2026 will be having a club meeting during PRIDE time on Tuesday of this week in room 915. Sign up on Flexisched with Ms. Lakey. Hope to see you there!

"Attention 7th, 8th and 9th graders. Do you want to go to college? Join AVID, a college and career readiness class that helps you pass your classes and prepare you to go to a 4-year university. Applications are due Friday March 18th. Sign up for Mr. Rooks or Ms. Betance's PRIDE Time on Wednesdays and Fridays for assistance. The application can be found on the bellflower high school website and on your grade level google classroom."

Are you going to be in grades 9-12 NEXT year? Are you interested helping to put together next year's Yearbook? Pick up an application in Ms. Jass's Rm 202 this week. Applications are due March 18th. You must have a 2.5 GPA and a B in English to be eligible for this class.

Attention all High School Girls !!! Girls interested in playing Basketball next year, tryouts will be on Wed., March 9th at 3:45pm. Please meet in front of Gym with workout gear ready to go. Please see Coach Jackson or Mr. Christensen if you have any questions.

The College & Career Center will be hosting a series of college workshops during PRIDE Time, starting Tuesday, March 15 through Wednesday, March 23. These workshops will occur in teachers' classrooms, with teachers projecting the live Google Meet using their own projector systems in classrooms. Ask your teachers if they plan to join the college workshops, so that you can sign up for their PRIDE Time. Workshop information has been posted on the WeAreBellflower Instagram account, and will also be posted to the Google Classroom accounts for each grade level. There are 3 days of workshops, with each day repeating. Workshop topics include college costs, financial aid, study abroad, dormitories, and more. (DO NOT Read Today – read every Mon/Wed/Fri only)

Attention Sophomores: If you are interested in taking 11th grade AP English Language next year there will be an informational meeting Wednesday at Lunch in room 210 where you can come learn more about prerequisites and what to expect next year. See Mr. Smith in room 210 if you have any questions.

Thank you to BUC students and Staff for supporting the Library and the book fair. Come join us for the "Book Fair After Party". All used books in boxes on the table are FREE. Monday, March 7th to Friday, March 11th.

SENIORS. The priority deadline to apply for FAFSA has passed! It was due March 2nd. Can you still apply for FAFSA? YES! However, you may not qualify for the maximum amount of grants that you could have received, had you done it done on time. This is especially true for the UC and CSU school systems, and for the Cerritos Complete Program. However, still apply for FAFSA if you haven't already done so, especially if you plan to enroll in any other community colleges. Need help? Stop by the College & Career Center.

Juniors and Sophomores! Ms. Satre and Ms. Thiebert are looking for you! Applications to be a Link Crew Leader next year are OPEN. Want to help new students get to know Bellflower? Want to strengthen your leadership skills? Want to be part of building a community on campus? Then LINK CREW might be for you! Stop by Room 913 or Room 900 for information and applications! Want more information? Then Sign up for Pride Time with Thiebert on March 9 or March 11 for a walk through of what link crew is!
