

The Young Artists EIGHT-WEEK Saturday Program } FALL: 9/19/15-11/14/15 (no class 10/24/15) SPRING: 3/19/16-5/7/16

What better way for your child to spend a few hours on a Saturday than to explore his or her innate creativity through the exploration of the arts?

From dancing to acting to cartooning, the Young Artists Saturday Series offers three strong programs for children in grades 3-8 that will capture their imaginations and bring out the artist within. Each session will culminate with an in-house master class session for family and friends.

FACULTY

Experienced drama, dance, and visual arts teachers from the Greater New Haven area.

FACILITIES

Designed by I.M. Pei and located on Choate Rosemary Hall's 458-acre campus, the Paul Mellon Arts Center houses two theaters, a recital hall, music classrooms and practice rooms, art studios, dance and film facilities, and a large art gallery/lounge area.

REGISTRATION

Register online at www.choate.edu/childrensarts or complete the application inside and return with a check payable to the Paul Mellon Arts Center.

ONE-HOUR WORKSHOPS

Students can sign up for ACTING AND IMPROVISATION or MUSIC AND MOVEMENT or both!

ACTING AND IMPROVISATION

10:00-11:00 a.m.

Use your imagination to create entertaining characters, hilarious story plots and exciting scenarios! Students are introduced to developmental drama, character creation and analysis, theater games and improvisation. All will participate in creating, directing, and performing original monologues and scenes.

MUSIC AND MOVEMENT

11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Through the exploration of music and movement, students recognize and develop their own creative voices. They will expand their knowledge base through interaction with others, as well as by generating and broadening their own interests and talents. Students will explore a variety of musical forms from African rhythms and drumming, to playing unique instruments, to singing songs from musical theater and more!

Students in each class will present an informal demonstration of their work at the end of each session.

TWO-HOUR WORKSHOP

VISUAL ARTS

10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Students will explore art through a variety of techniques such as drawing, painting, cartooning and book illustration.

The class will take both a realistic and abstract approach to art. Throughout the workshop the elements of art and color theory will be used as a guide for students as they create their artwork. Students will render their artwork in media such as pencils, colored pencils, charcoals, markers, pens, watercolor and acrylic paints. Students will also keep a portfolio of their artwork. All supplies included.

Parents will be invited to explore their child's art work and participate in our final project.

Each program will include a ticket to the Children's Theater performance of
