

Chapter 7B School-to-Home Connection

Dear Parent or Guardian,

The theme for the chapter is De Compras (shopping) and this chapter is called ¡Que Regalo! (What a gift!)

Upon completion of this chapter, your child will be able to:

- Talk about buying gifts
- Tell what happened in the past
- Understand cultural perspectives on gift giving

Also your child will explore:

- The correct pronunciation of the letter combinations gue, gui, que, and qui
- The Spanish word ending –eria, which usually indicates where something is sold, made, or repaired

Realidades helps with the development of reading, writing, and speaking skills through the use of strategies, process speaking, and process writing. In this chapter, students will:

- Read about shopping in different Hispanic communities in the U.S.
- Write a letter to a cousin or other relative about a gift

Remember that additional help is available online at www.PHSchool.com by using the web codes in the student edition or in the practice workbook.

Check it out! Have your child write a list of family members. Ask him or her to name in Spanish the type of gift each of them might like. Then, ask your child whether each gift is expensive or inexpensive.

Sincerely,
