White Man's Burden

By Rudyard Kipling (1899)

Take up the White Man's burden--
Send forth the best ye breed--
Go bind your sons to exile
To serve your captives' need;
To wait in heavy harness,
On fluttered folk and wild--
Your new-caught, sullen peoples,
Half-devil and half-child.

Take up the White Man's burden--
In patience to abide,
To veil the threat of terror
And check the show of pride;
By open speech and simple,
An hundred times made plain
To seek another's profit,
And work another's gain.

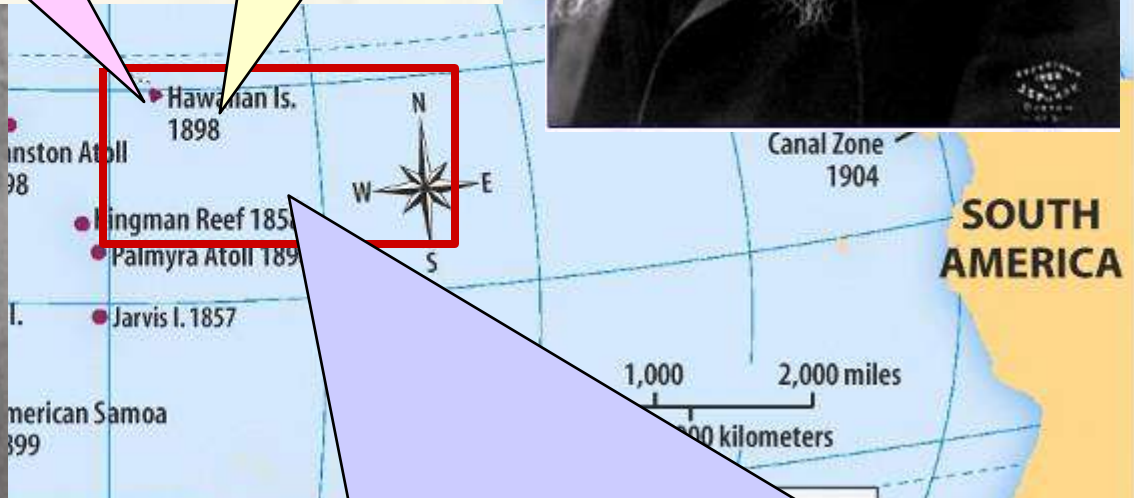

(Apologies to Kipling).<sup>2</sup>

PERSONAL EFFECTS OF MAINE DEAD

Washington, April 14.—A member of the Cabinet, who has been here very representative in his opinion, and this morning. "Whether the President tries to take advantage of us or the malicious character of the resolution passed today by the House, THERE WILL BE WAR. "The House will not, under any circumstances, fail to back up the report of its Foreign Affairs Committee, which definitely laid the blame for the Maine tragedy upon Spain. "In face of this fact we have got to fight. The party gets out of its seat and with a vote as small as it please, get it out of the seat. "It seems to me that the duty now is being exacted by the men who were Cuban or Spanish friends, and who are being, in face of inevitable war, to make the best terms they can. "BUT WE WILL BURELY HAVE WAR."

ACTION OF HOUSE IS DISTRUSTED.

Washington, April 14.—No longer the object of reverence—Spain and its allies from Cuba or in reply of some of them. This is the traditional difference between the strong criticism introduced in the Senate and that unqualified denunciation adopted by the House. A majority of the Senators is inclined to sympathize with Cuba. AT ONCE, when by members of the House, that is Spain's punishment for murder and rape in Cuba and the destruction of the Maine.

Yellow Journalism contributed to the outbreak of the Spanish-American War

The U.S. easily won the Spanish-American War to free Cuba and the Philippines from Spain

Teddy Roosevelt and the Rough Riders

As a result of the Spanish-American War, Cuba was liberated and the USA annexed the Philippines, Guam, and Puerto Rico

When the Philippines were annexed and not granted independence, the Filipino War began in 1899

The Filipino-American War lasted 3 years and cost more American lives than the Spanish-American War

Quick Class Survey: Agree or Disagree

1. It is justifiable for the United States to use military force to protect U.S. financial interests.
2. It is justifiable to go to war to defend an ally of the United States.
3. It is acceptable for the United States to promote Christianity in other nations.
4. Diplomacy is the only acceptable foreign policy.
5. It is acceptable to go to war to remove dictatorships and promote democracy.
6. It is the U.S. responsibility to be the “policemen” of the world.
7. President Washington was correct – the United States should avoid foreign entanglements.
8. It might not be politically correct, but the United States really is a superior nation.
9. The United States must maintain a superior military force for national security.
10. A wealthy nation like the United States should offer economic or military aid when a weaker nation requests it.

When Theodore Roosevelt became president, he used Big Stick Diplomacy to develop an active foreign policy with a strong navy to accomplish goals

“Speak softly and carry a big stick, you will go far”
—TR’s favorite proverb

THE BIG STICK IN THE CARIBBEAN SEA

TR added the Roosevelt Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine, giving the USA “police powers” to protect Latin America from European imperialism

The Roosevelt Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine, 1904

Chronic wrongdoing... may in America, as elsewhere, ultimately require intervention by some civilized nation, and in the Western Hemisphere the adherence of the United States to the Monroe Doctrine may force the United States, however reluctantly, in flagrant cases of such wrongdoing or impotence, to the exercise of an international police power.

One of TR's top objectives was to build a canal in Panama to help U.S. naval and commercial ships

But, the gov't of Colombia rejected the U.S. offer to build a canal in Panama so TR encouraged Panama to break from Colombia

With U.S. help, Panama gained its independence from Colombia in 1903 and the new government agreed to allow the U.S. to build the canal

Panama Canal Video \(3.20\)

In 1914, the Panama Canal was finished and controlled by the United States

How the Panama Canal Works

Not all Americans supported imperialism
