Beware...it's October 31...Halloween...

“When the spooks have a midnight jamboree, they break it up with fiendish glee. The ghosts are bad, but the one that’s cursed is the headless horseman; he’s the worst.

That’s right, he’s a fright on Halloween night!

When he goes a joggin’ ‘cross the land, holding his noggin in his hand.

Demons take one look and groan, and they hit the road to parts unknown.

Beware, take care he rides alone!”

- From “The Headless Horseman,” The Legend of Sleepy Hollow (1949)

The Legend of Sleepy Hollow resurfaces every year around Halloween.

Washington Irving's 1820 tale of a headless horseman who terrorizes the real-life village of Sleepy Hollow is considered one of America's first ghost stories—and one of its scariest.
