

The Odyssey Comic Strip: Due on Friday, March 10, 2017

Choose a story from The Odyssey that you can depict in the form of a comic strip.

- Island of the Cyclopes
- King Aeolus
- Laestrygonians
- Circe
- Helios/Cattle of the Sun
- Return to Ithaca

To make your comic strip work, you will need to create six panels – a Sunday comic.

(A Sunday comic, you might recall, is always color; yours should be colored too.)

Each panel will represent one of the six points on the plot line - exposition, inciting moment, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. To show mastery of the list 3 vocabulary, you must correctly use each vocabulary word at least one time.

- Each box should include:
 - Summary of the plot point (2-3 sentences)
 - Direct quote from the text (woven into your own sentence)
 - Illustration

*You may invent short bits of dialogue to put inside the boxes -- extra points

Rubric – Be sure to go through this checklist before turning in your paper.
