

BTHS ON CAMPUS DUAL ENROLLMENT INFORMATION

LIMITED SEATS AVAILABLE FOR THESE COURSES

IMPORTANT DATES - These deadlines and dates are different for off campus Dual Enrollment courses and Academy Dual Enrollment courses

- Thursday, January 9: Mandatory Informational Session at 8:30am in the Auditorium
- Friday, January 17: Application/Admissions forms due (NO EXCEPTIONS)
- Friday, February 28: Last Day to turn in qualifying test scores (NO EXCEPTIONS)
- Please read and keep the "Dual Enrollment Program Principles of Participation" Form

*Please be advised that BTHS will not be offering testing on campus for qualifying scores this year. BTHS can no longer offer the PERT exam on campus. Students will need to make arrangements to test at the college, contact SJR Testing at 386-312-4228. If you do not meet the qualifying scores by February 28th, you will not be permitted to enroll in the course on our campus. You will, however, still have the opportunity to enroll in off campus dual enrollment courses permitted you meet the academic requirements.

*Deadline to submit scores to Melissa Roughan is Friday, February 28th for on campus dual enrollment.

*If you do not meet the score requirement to qualify for the dual enrollment course(s) you will be placed in an honors or standard level English course.

Additional information

- Students will receive 1.0 high school credit in English through completion of ENC 1101 and 1.0 high school credit through the completion of ENC1102 (earning 2.0 English credits for the school year).
- Students will, more than likely, receive their 4th high school English credit (completing their high school English requirements for graduation)

We would recommend one or more of the following options for their senior year:

- Take an additional English course:
 - AP English Literature on the Bartram Trail High School campus
 - ENC 2210 Technical and Professional Report Writing
 - AML 2010 (American Literature 1), AML 2020 (American Literature 2), or LIT 2000 (Introduction to Literature) on the St Johns River State College campus
- Take another Dual Enrollment course option that fits your student’s projected collegiate field of study instead of an additional English course.
- Students will be required to take and pass AMH2010 and AMH2020 with a “C” or better to fulfill the American History graduation requirement.
