

The Neighborhood Place of Wailuku, Parenting Class called, Kamalama, meaning, “the light,” is a ten (10) week course that will be conducted weekly for two (2) hours with lesson and discussion. Each class session will incorporate a Hawaiian value and parenting principles together. Lesson plan will also include hand-outs, stories, illustrations, hands-on activities, reflections, and homework.

Kamalama is for na makua, parents, caregivers, and na keiki, children, to promote foundational values and Protective Factors in a group setting. Group features parent-child interactive learn and play with Hawaiian values/culture and parenting principles.

Next class starts – Wednesday – September 18, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Classes are Free. Space is Limited. Call to Enroll.

In-person and Zoom classes are Offered.

For more information or to register:

Mia at (808) 357-8245 or msado-magbual@cfs-hawaii.org

“Aloha Kekahi i Kekahi” Love One Another

