Getting Ready for Third Grade

Below is a list of skills that students can practice over the summer to help keep their minds fresh!

- Read for 20-30 minutes each day.
- Practice making inferences, drawing conclusions, and finding evidence to support your answers when reading.
- Grammar—identify nouns, verbs, and adjectives
- Writing—practice writing paragraphs with a topic sentence and supporting details, including proper punctuation and capitalization.
- Math—Make sure to have the addition and subtraction facts mastered and memorized fluently within 1-20. Use flash cards or apps to practice.
- Math—Begin understanding and memorizing multiplication facts 0—9.
