

Albert Turner Bharucha-Reid

A famous African American in Math

By: Cole

Early Life

- Albert was born February 22, 1930 in Hampton, Virginia. Albert wrote his first paper when he was 18 (on mathematical biology). One year later, (1949) he earned a Ph.D. in Mathematical Biology from the University of Iowa.

Pictures

Civil rights leader

- Albert was a civil rights leader for the 1965 Voting Rights from Salem to Montgomery, Alabama. He was a part of Martin Luther King's funeral. It was his job to lead the mule that carried Martin's body.

Death

- Turner died in Selma, Alabama on April 13, 2000. He was great because he wrote many books on algebra and different types of math.

Credits

- Infoplease.com
- Turner enterprises.com
- Hrcr.org