

Dear Algebra Student,

Whether you are currently enrolled in Algebra or just looking for an extra review to help you in your higher math level classes, you've found the right resource! Algebra Nation is a completely FREE online resource that is available 24/7. It's meant to help students like you review all the skills needed to succeed in your algebra class and on the Algebra End-of-Course exam.

ALGEBRA NATION: The Who, What, When, Where, Why (and How?)

... Who is involved? Who is this for?

The University of Florida, in partnership with Study Edge, an innovative education technology company that has helped over 10,000 college students study, created this free Algebra End-of-Course (EOC) exam prep resource to help students across Florida pass the EOC.

... What is Algebra Nation?

Algebra Nation is an easy-to-use online resource, featuring energetic Study Experts and dynamic algebra teachers throughout Florida. These highly interactive videos are fun ways for you to review the material you learned in the classroom on your own time. Videos come with study guides so you can follow along with the videos easily. There is also a "Test Yourself!" section for each topic, so you can check if you understood the material. The "Test Yourself!" section will also help you get comfortable with computer-based testing.

Algebra Nation also features an Algebra wall where students can go for Algebra help. There, you can ask and answer questions anytime about Algebra concepts. Study Experts and Florida teachers are online to help guide you to the correct answers. You can receive Karma Points for answering other students' questions on the Algebra Wall, because we believe that by helping others you'll help yourself!

How can I get started with Algebra Nation?

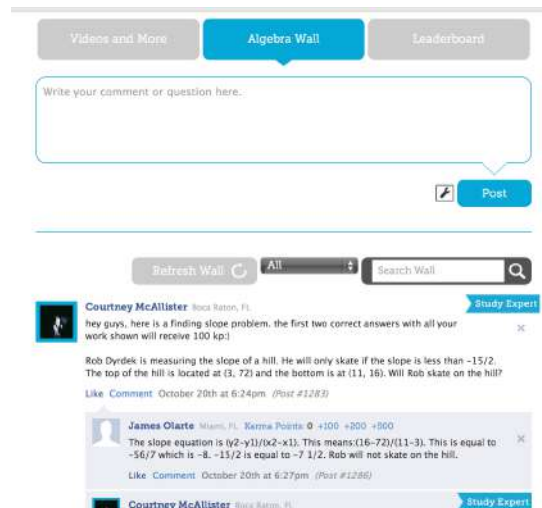

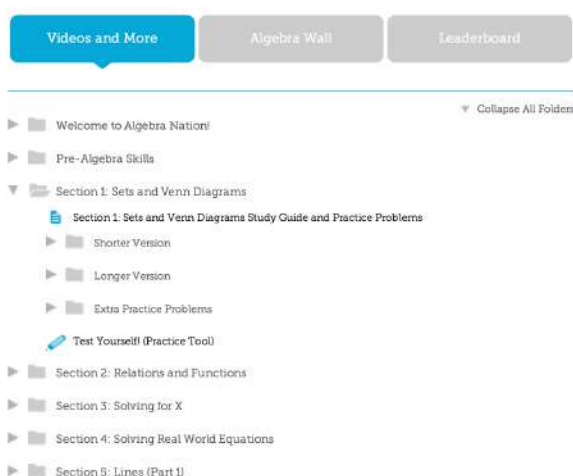

Go to AlgebraNation.com. Enter your school. The next screen will prompt you to enter your Algebra Nation username and password.

You will be given very specific instructions here as to what you will use for your Username.
