To the Applicant:

Since you will be judged upon the content furnished in this application, give considerable thought to the details requested and to the submitted information. Provide as much detail about yourself as necessary to complete each section. Members of the Masonic Lodges and Eastern Star Chapter Selection Committee have not met you and student selection will be based upon the content of this application.

Additional pages of narrative or supporting documentation may be added to any section. This can include newspaper clippings, photos, and letters of recommendation from persons within your school/community. This information will give the Committee a better insight about you, your school and community activities. You are encouraged to submit copies rather than originals. Any material sent will not be returned unless you specify what particular item(s) need returning and provide an appropriate self-addressed, stamped envelope.

With the exception of section III, which must in your own legible handwriting, you may type the remaining sections of the application.

Completed applications must be returned to your school Guidance Counselor or Principal by April 28, 2023
