

You will need a myavid account to access these trainings. You can request an account through avid.org and Ms. Bisignano will approve it, or she can create one for you. summer.bisignano@sumter.k12.fl.us

The image is a screenshot of the MyAVID website. At the top left is the MyAVID logo with the tagline "Proven Achievement. Lifelong Advantage." At the top right, it says "Welcome, Summer Bisignano" with a "Log Out" button and a profile picture. Below this is a navigation bar with links: Home, Certification, Community, Curriculum, Data Collection, eLearning, and Event Registration. The main heading is "Core Strategies". Below this is a pagination control showing "1 2 3". The page features a grid of nine training topics, each with a representative image, a title, and a "Learn More" button:

- Academic Language and Literacy for AVID Elementary (Image: Teacher pointing at a board)
- Collaborative Structures (Image: Students in a classroom)
- Collaborative Study Groups (Image: Students working together)
- Family Engagement (Image: A group of people sitting together)
- Focused Note-Taking (Image: A student writing in a notebook)
- Higher-Level Thinking (Image: A student reading a book)
- Interactive Notebooks (Image: An open notebook with a pink pen)
- Philosophical Chairs (Image: Students in a hallway)
- Socratic Seminar (Image: A circular arrangement of students)