

2017 GSEF Awards Summary

Student	School	Award(s)	Prize
Jahizreal Aquart	BEST Academy	Regional ISEF Trip Winner	Trip to Los Angeles to compete at the international competition
Ethan Damiani	Grady High School	The SJS Management “Busy Bee” Award Winner	Student won a desktop computer. He will also be represent APS at Governor’s Honors for science.
Ashleigh Holloway	Mays High School	1. 3 rd Place: American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics Award 2. Office of Naval Research Naval Science Award	Certificates and Acknowledgement
Ty Price	Mays High School	Regional ISEF Trip Winner	Trip to Los Angeles to compete at the international competition
Clinton Smith	BEST Academy	1. Regional ISEF Trip Winner 2. Senior Division: Fourth Honors	Trip to Los Angeles to compete at the international competition
Anderson Thrasher	Grady High School	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. GSEF Pinnacle Award (Best Overall Project) 2. Intel ISEF Award (Top 4 Projects) 3. GSEF Grand Award Winner (Top 11 Projects) 4. Senior Division: First Honors 5. Tellus Science Museum Award 6. University of Georgia Physics and Astronomy Award 7. Yale Science and Engineering Association Award 8. Best in Category: Physics and Astronomy 	Student won physics books, $1000+ in awards, a Trip to Los Angeles to compete at the international competition. Of the GSEF Grand Award winners, the top 4 are selected to receive the Intel ISEF Award. The top project of the Intel ISEF Award receives the Pinnacle Award. This project was judged upward of 11 times.
Thomas Contis	North Atlanta	Senior Division: Third Honors
Fatima Hendricks	Maynard Jackson	Senior Division: Third Honors
Cloe McCarron	Maynard Jackson	Senior Division: Third Honors
Ciara Dean	Coretta Scott King	Senior Division: Fourth Honors
Payton Parker	Grady High School	Senior Division: Fourth Honors
Brooke Willis	Grady High School	Senior Division: Fourth Honors

Notes: The GSEF Pinnacle award is the best overall project in the entire fair for the state of Georgia. This is the first time that Atlanta Public Schools has ever won the award. The division awards are the equivalent of placing (i.e. Senior Division: Third Honors = 3rd Place based on score)