

Commas Bellringers

Bellringer

INSTRUCTIONS: The following sentences contain comma errors. Write the sentences as they appear and then make the corrections.

1. A poem may use verbs that appeal to the senses of sight sound and touch.
2. Your personal response to a poem might be positive negative or indifferent.

Bellringer

INSTRUCTIONS: The following sentences contain comma errors. Copy the sentences as they appear and then make corrections.

、

1. Sometimes I show my writing to my parents my aunt and my sister.
2. I want to get their reactions see them smile and get ideas for improvement.

Bellringer

INSTRUCTIONS: The following sentences contain comma errors. Write the sentences as they appear and then make the corrections.

1. The narrator's mother designed a toothbrush for babies a sliding oven rack and a device she called Lendalarm.
2. She enjoyed challenging friends neighbors and even her own children.

Bellringer

- INSTRUCTIONS: The following sentences contain comma errors. Write the sentences as they appear and then make the corrections.
1. Ms. Polson likes to read crochet and play with her dog.
 2. Javien will go home do his homework and help his mother with chores.
 3. Chelsea plans to hang out with Angel Jeremy and Cole this weekend.

Comma Bellringer Quiz

Clear your desk of everything but a piece of paper and a writing utensil.