Book Jacket Assignment

You are a book publisher. Book publishers design and publish book covers, print stories etc. Your job is to design an original book jacket for one of the excerpt stories that we read.

Requirements:

On the Front Cover

• the class decided the cover must have:
- ✓ the title of book
- ✓ an illustration that includes "action" images that directly connect to the story as you understand it – it can be in black and white or colour
- ✓ Optional –awards the book has received – feel free to make-up your own to honour the book in some way
- ✓ Optional – the price of the book
- ✓ Optional – pop-up picture for a 3D effect

On the Inside Left Flap or the Inside Right Flap

• -write biographical information about the author and illustrator (if there is one).
- ✓ Summarize important parts of the author's life.

On the Back Cover

• You must have:
- ✓ a summary of the story
  -do not give away too much information.
  -do not give away the ending
- ✓ a brief book review
  -why should your classmates read the book
- ✓ the ISBN number with bar code.
- ✓ the price
- ✓ your publisher/publishing companies name including and an original logo
- ✓ Optional -an illustration
- ✓ Optional –a recommendation to read the story from friends and family who have read the book
- ✓ Optional -a passage from the book to give a taste to the writing style

Let's face it we know that students determine whether or not they will "like" a book based on the cover alone. Do your best to make it more appealing! Do not copy summaries, the author's biography, or the reviews. Make sure the illustrations and ideas are the work of your very own successful publishing company.
