

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We are excited to invite you to a special event in partnership with the New Trier Parents' Association. As we embrace a culture of belonging within our school community, it's essential to recognize and celebrate the unique qualities of our students.

Did you know that at least one-third of all people are introverts? It's quite possible that your student is one of them. To delve into the power of introversion and foster a better understanding of the topic, we invite you to join us on Wednesday, April 10th, from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at the Winnetka Campus for an insightful discussion featuring the book "Quiet Power: The Secret Strengths of Introverted Kids."

Joining me for the evening will be Elizabeth Bennett, New Trier's Music & Theatre Department Chair, and a self-proclaimed introvert. Together, we will explore the strengths of introversion, provide valuable insights to help introverted individuals build confidence, and discuss strategies for thriving in a world that often values extroversion.

The flyer is divided into two main sections. On the left, there is a book cover for "Quiet Power: The Secret Strengths of Introverted Kids" by Susan Cain, with Gregory Mone and Erica Moroz. The cover features a large red letter 'Q' with a small figure climbing it. On the right, the event details are presented. At the top is the New Trier Parent logo, which includes a shield with a 'U' and the text 'NEW TRIER PARENT'. Below the logo, it says 'INVITES PARENTS AND GUARDIANS TO A BOOK DISCUSSION'. The date and time are listed in a green rounded rectangle: 'WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 2024 6:30-8:00 P.M.'. The location is 'McGee Theatre, Winnetka Campus'. Below this, there are two small portrait photos of the speakers: Principal Denise Dubravec on the left and Elizabeth Bennett on the right. The text between the photos reads: 'Join us for an insightful conversation co-led by Principal Denise Dubravec and self-proclaimed introvert, Elizabeth Bennett, New Trier's Music & Theatre Department Chair'.

Prior to the discussion, we encourage parents to pick up a copy of "Quiet Power: The Secret Strengths of Introverted Kids" to read over the spring break. To make this process easier for you, the NTPA has partnered with the Book Stall. Interested readers can find the book in-store, order by phone at 847-446-8880, or conveniently order a copy online.

We also encourage all attendees to watch Susan Cain's TED Talk on The Power of Introverts.

We look forward to a meaningful and enriching discussion that will contribute to a supportive environment for all our students. Thank you for your involvement and commitment to the New Trier community.

Denise Dubravec, Principal/Assistant Superintendent, Winnetka Campus
