Bus Note Permission Form

Please fill out this form when your child plans to ride a different bus home from school.

You may use this template, also available on our website, or write your own (please include information requested on this form when you write your own).

Students must turn this note into the student window in the morning in order to ensure the office has time to issue them a bus pass. Students must show their school-issued bus pass to the driver when boarding the bus.
