

You Are Invited To Audition For
The Clayton County Youth Orchestra

The Clayton County Youth Orchestra is designed to offer a quality performance experience for area string players. Membership in the orchestra is open to string players with at least two years of experience who successfully pass the entrance audition.

Auditions for the 2019 – 2020 season

Date: Thursday, September 5 - 5:00 – 6:30

Location: Clayton State University

Requirements:

1. Solo or Etude
2. Sight reading
3. Scales (violin: 2 octave G and A major, viola and cello: 2 octave C and D major, bass: 1 octave C and D major)

To Schedule An Audition: contact Richard Bell
at RichardBell@clayton.edu

Schedule: Rehearsals – Thursdays from 6:30 – 8:00
First Rehearsal – September 12
Concerts – December 3 and May 5

Tuition Fee: Free for Clayton County Public School Students. $100 for all others.

Benefits:

Perform in world famous Spivey Hall
Free tickets to selected Spivey Hall concerts
Master classes with guest artists

The Conductors: The orchestra is conducted by Dr. Richard Bell and Dr. Annalisa Chang. Both are on the faculty of Clayton State University and are very experienced in teaching middle and high school string players. Upper level collegiate music education students will also work with the group.

More Information: Contact Richard Bell at RichardBell@clayton.edu