

Lord of The Flies: Chapter 4 Summary Notes

The chapter begins with three , the generic title for the smaller boys, building sand . The three boys are , the smallest and youngest of the three; , the biggest of them; and Johnny, who is well built.

Out of the forest runs and Maurice, who have just been relieved from their duty at the . On their way to swim, they kick over the sand . begins to cry because he gets in his . thinks to himself that in his other life, he would have been yelled at for kicking in 's , but now with very little regret, he runs on to the pool for a . stays behind to observe the littluns. Once Percival stops crying, throws more in his .

After Henry gets bored, he leaves, and follows him. becomes interested in tiny transparencies, little creatures from the . He starts to become fascinated with controlling the movement of these . While 's attention is on the transparencies, starts to throw at . He misses him on purpose.

About ten yards behind him, beckons Roger. He follows Jack and finds Sam, , Bill, and Jack putting paint on their faces. They are going on a hunt for a . A problem is that and Eric are neglecting their duty of the . This later proves disastrous because Ralph sees smoke from a , but there is no for the ship to see them.

and his crew return with a dead . They are chanting, "Kill the . Cut her . Spill her .

interrupts 's glory from the hunt to yell at him about letting the go out. also yells at , but this drives to violence. punches in the and smacks his , which causes _____ offers an apology to _____ for letting the _____ go out. And then they begin to start another _____, but they do so in a different location because _____ will not move from the site of the original _____.

_____’s _____ to break.

Later they start to eat the _____. _____, who originally wants to resist eating the meat, eats it. _____ brings on more humiliation by asking about his share of the meat. Jack tells him he didn’t _____. But _____ responds that neither did _____ or Simon. _____ gives Piggy his share of meat.

Word Bank

Henry	creatures	blood
Roger	water	stomach
Percival	rocks	head
Littluns	dazzle	glasses
Fire	Jack	hunt
Castles	Sam	Simon
Sand	pig
Eyes	ship
Maruice	smoke
Swim	throat	