

Because of Winn-Dixie Chapter Fifteen pg98-103

What kind of "fit" does Miss Franny have? Is it because she is mad or doesn't get her way? Is it something she can control (pg. 99)?

Cite the things Winn-Dixie does for Miss Franny that would show he could possibly be a good guide dog for someone.

Pg _____

Pg _____

Draw a picture of what it looked like as Miss Franny was about to begin telling the story to Winn-Dixie, Opal, and Amanda at the end of the chapter.

Winn-Dixie comforts Miss Franny during her fits and Opal tries to comfort Winn-Dixie and Gloria, but who comforts you when you are sad or do not feel well or lonely and upset? Describe why that person is a good comforter to you.

What was Opal most afraid that Winn-Dixie would do during a thunderstorm?

Pg _____

Do you think Amanda will ever be nice to everyone?

If you knew someone like Amanda, how would you try to be friends with them and help them not be so mean and upset all the time?

Questions or comments for discussion in class:
