

Due Tuesday August 18, 2017
 Fifth Grade Choice Board-Classification of Animals
 Chose Any 3 and Complete

Classification Select pictures of twenty animals. Choose two different ways to group them: body covering, number of legs, wings, ears, color, or size.	Chart Create a chart illustrating fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals. Include their characteristics and one example of each.	Essay Write an essay describing characteristics of each of the following: fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals.
Persuasive Piece Write a paragraph detailing the advantages and disadvantages of being classified as -----.	Imaginary Animal Invent an imaginary animal, Draw a picture and write a description. Include how the animal eats, grows, and moves. Tell what classification the animal would belong and why.	List Create a list of ten vertebrates and ten invertebrates.
Mini-Book Choose one animal classification. Create a flipbook featuring ten animals in the classification. Include the animal's name and at least one unique characteristic about the animal.	Venn Diagram Create a Venn diagram comparing and contrasting two or three groups: fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds, or mammals.	Board Game Create a board game that shows understanding of classifying animals.