March on Washington

DOK 3 Task

Many people feel that there should be diversity portrayed on American currency. Think about each person and event that you have studied on this pathway. Determine who YOU think has made the largest impact on the world today: Thurgood Marshall, Rosa Parks, or Martin Luther King, Jr. You will write a letter to the U.S. Treasury Department to explain why you think this person has made the biggest impact on the world today and deserves the honor of being on the next bill. In your letter, cite evidence from the Civil Rights event that the person was a part of (Brown v. BOE, Montgomery Bus Boycott, or March on Washington), as well as evidence of life today that has been influenced by this person to fully explain and support your choice. After you have written your letter, you will create a new piece of currency using the given template.

When your DOK 3 Task is complete, you may choose from MAY Dos below:
