CCPS to Launch New Student & Employee COVID-19 Self-Reporting Portal

Portal will be accessible beginning Monday, December 6, 2021

JONESBORO- Clayton County Public Schools will launch a COVID-19 Self-Reporting Portal for students and employees on Monday, December 6, 2021. Featuring a user-friendly platform, this self-reporting tool will allow employees, students, and/or their parents to complete a brief survey and submit those responses directly to the district COVID-19 response team.

"As we continue to navigate this pandemic, Clayton County Public Schools is excited to create this new platform for parents, students, and staff, as we prioritize safety and health within our school and community, said Dr. Morcease J. Beasley, Superintendent/CEO of Schools. "I commend our team of dedicated employees for their hard work to establish the Clayton County Public Schools Self-Reporting COVID-19 Portal."

To report a positive COVID-19 case or exposure parents, guardians and employees should use the link or QR code below beginning December 6, 2021. The reporting links and QR codes will be available on the Clayton County Public Schools district and all school websites.
