Collapse of the Soviet Union / End of the Cold War / Fall of Communism

4 CAUSES

1) Massive Spending

The Soviets spent tons and tons of money fighting to support the communist cause and put down revolts in places like Hungary and Afghanistan.

Enormous amounts of money was spent on the Arms and Space Races as the USSR worked to outdo the USA in both areas.

4 CAUSES

2) Economic Recession

Beginning in 1986, the Soviet Union began significantly cutting funding to its satellite states. This move is usually discussed as the beginning of the end for the Soviet Union, which was experiencing a recession similar to the Great Depression in the United States in the 1930s.

4 CAUSES

3) Glasnost

The Soviet Union struggled economically ($) through the 1980s. Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev introduced two bold concepts called glasnost and perestroika. Glasnost, Russian for publicity or openness, was a call for greater transparency in the Soviet government, allowing more freedom of speech and freedom of the press.

a

4) Perestroika

The Soviet Union struggled economically through the 1980s. Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev introduced two bold concepts called glasnost and perestroika.

Perestroika, Russian for restructuring, was a movement to reform the Soviet Union and allow for private ownership of some businesses. Within a few years, many of the countries under Soviet control broke away or underwent revolutions. The Soviet Union was completely dissolved by 1991.

4 DETAILS

c

1) 74 years of the USSR

In the midst of World War One, Russia's longstanding monarchy was overthrown and communism was established. Since that year (1917), the Soviet Union or "USSR" (Union of Soviet Socialist Republics) lasted almost 75 years before coming apart in the late 1980s.

3) Fall of the Berlin Wall

In November of 1989, the Berlin Wall came down. Many East German citizens were already escaping the communist world by going to Austria through Hungary (where the border fences were coming down). Thousands of East Berliners soon overwhelmed the guards and crossed into West Berlin. The wall came down for good weeks later.

4) Revolutions of '89

The Eastern Bloc was the name given to the Eastern European countries that answered to the Soviet Union. All 6 of them fell in the fall of 1989. East Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria all overthrew their communist governments relatively peacefully, while Romania's revolution was more violent.

4 EFFECTS

c

1) U.S.S.R. Dissolves

What used to be the Soviet Union eventually split into 15 separate nations.

These nations included:

Armenia

Azerbaijan

Belarus

Estonia

Georgia

Kazakhstan

Kyrgyzstan

Latvia

Lithuania

Moldova

Tajikistan

Turkmenistan

Uzbekistan

Ukraine

Russia

4 EFFECTS

2) Eastern Bloc Abandons Communism

All six eastern bloc nations abandoned communism via the 1989 revolutions. Romanian revolutionaries literally cut the hammer and sickle symbol out of the flag as if to “cut the communism out of Romania.” Other communist nations (but not Eastern Bloc) also left communism in the years to come (e.g. Yugoslavia and Albania).

3) Democracy in Russia

For the first time in Russia's history, the nation became a democracy. For centuries, Russia was ruled by czars. After the 1917 Revolution, the Soviet Union was a communist superpower. But after 1991, Russia rejoined the world community as a democracy.

4) Only 5 communist nations remain

Technically, no nation is purely communist (since Karl Marx described communism as a classless, stateless society). But there are five who claim to be some form of leftist government (e.g. socialist, communist). They include: Laos, Cuba, China, Vietnam and North Korea.
